"What is PPF?","PPF is a saving and tax savings scheme that was introduced by the Government of India in 1968. It is fully guaranteed by the government and hence carries zero risk. The interest rates are attractive and there are tax benefits too. All in all, its an excellent investment for the small investor and those who want to save on tax.","False"

"What is PPF investment?","There are many advantages to PPF investment. Firstly, it generally offers slightly higher interest rates than fixed deposits of banks. Secondly, it is much more secure than any other comparable fixed income instrument available in the market today. Thirdly, interest earned on a PPF scheme is exempt from tax. Four, you can deduct the invested amount from your taxable income, thus paying lower taxes.","False"

"How is PPF better than deposits in nationalised banks?","Well, its a far better investment option than nationalised bank deposits because it is backed by the Government of India, so is risk-free. The interest rates too are slightly higher than those offered by bank fixed deposits, and since interest on PPF is tax free, the actual returns are going to be much higher. And the amount invested also reduces your taxable income. Of course, the disadvantage is that your PPF deposits will be locked in for 15 years.","False"

"How can we get tax benefit on PPF investment?","PPF is a popular among investors because of its significant tax advantages. Any interest that you have earned from a PPF account is exempt from tax. Besides that, any sum that you invest in PPF is also deducted from your taxable income, up to a maximum of Rs 1.5 lakh. That is, if you have an income of Rs 10 lakh per annum and invest Rs 1.5 lakh in PPF, your taxable income will be only Rs 8.5 lakh. You could save as much as Rs 30,000 in income tax alone!","False"

"What is the minimum amount to be deposited in a PPF account every year?","You have to deposit of a minimum of Rs 500 and a maximum of Rs 1.5 lakh in a financial year. If this amount is not deposited, the account will be deactivated. To activate the account again, you have to pay a penalty Rs 50 and deposit Rs 500 for each inactive year.","False"

"What are the benefits of PPF?","There are several. It is risk free since it is backed by the Government of India, there is a tax benefit on both the interest earned and the principal invested, and the rate of interest is a little higher than bank fixed deposits.","False"

"What are the disadvantages of PPF?","The biggest disadvantage of a PPF scheme is the lack of liquidity since your money will be locked in for 15 years. However there is a facility to avail of loans from your PPF account after a few years. You can also withdraw a part of the accrued sum prematurely from the start of the seventh financial year.","False"

"Can we withdraw money from PPF account?", "A PPF account has a tenure of 15 years, which means your funds will be locked in for that duration. However, you can avail of a loan facility between the third and sixth financial years. The loan is available for up to 25% of the amount in your account. The interest on the loan will be the PPF interest rate (8% now) plus 2%. You can also make a partial withdrawal every year from the seventh year onwards. This is subject to a cap of 50% of the total balance at the end of the fourth year immediately preceding the year of withdrawal, or the year immediately preceding the year of withdrawal, whichever is lower. Partial withdrawals are tax free too.", "False"

"Can I deposit more than 1.5 lakh in PPF?", "No you cant. The maximum you can invest in a PPF scheme is Rs 1.5 lakh per annum.", "False"

"Can PPF account be closed before 15 years?", "Yes, you can close the PPF account before the 15-year period, but only under specific conditions. For instance, if the money is needed for higher education of minor account holders and medical treatment for serious life-threatening diseases of the account holder, his or her spouse, children or parents. However, you have to pay a penalty you will get 1% less interest on the amount.", "False"

"Can I close my PPF account after 5 years?", "Yes, you can, but only under the conditions mentioned above, like medical treatment for yourself or your family members or higher education of minor account holders.", "False"

"What is the minimum lock in period for PPF account?", "The minimum lock-in period for a PPF account is 15 years. "Can I freeze my account? What is the procedure to freeze / unfreeze a Demat Account?", "Yes, the depository system provides the facility to freeze the depository accounts for debits or for both debits and credits. In an account freeze for debits, no debits will be permitted from the account till the time you unfreeze it. This is an additional security feature for the benefit of the investors. For an account which is frozen for all operations no credits or debits will take place. There is an additional feature in NSDL system which allows you to freeze a particular ISIN or part quantity of an ISIN in an investor's account. In case of freezing, the freezing date has to be mentioned i.e. the date from when the freezing of the account is sought. (No need to mention freezing end date as the NSDL system does not provide to capture the freezing ""end date""). On receipt of the request, the DP will verify that the form is duly filled in, verify the signature/s of the client and thereafter, if the request form is in order the DP changes the status of the Client's account from 'ACTIVE' to 'SUSPENDED FOR DEBIT' OR 'SUSPENDED FOR ALL'. This depends on the choice of the client from the date mentioned by the client on the form. However, to unfreeze we need the freezing ""end date"", i.e. the date from when unfreezing of the account is sought. If the request form is in order the DP changes the status of the client's account to 'ACTIVE' on the date mentioned by the client on the form.", "False"

"Can I open an account in a single name for shares held in a joint combination of names?", "No. The Demat Account must be opened in the same combination in which the securities are held in physical form. For example, if one share certificate is in the Joint name of Mr. A & Mr. B and another certificate is in the sole name of Mr. A, two separate Demat Accounts will have to be opened, one in the joint name of Mr. A & Mr. B and another in the sole name of Mr. A. However, if Mr. A and Mr. B hold a Demat Account and if the certificates are in the names of Mr. B and Mr. A, the shares can be dematerialized in the Demat account of Mr. A and Mr. B. *Also refer to ""Transposition"" for more details.", "False"

If you, or your representative, are unable to submit/show original documents at the Branch then photo copies of the address proof and ID proof should be further attested (along with self attestation) by any one of the entities viz; Notary Public, Court, Magistrate, Judge, Local Banker, Indian Embassy / Consulate General of the country where NRI/FN is residing (the attestation to the effect that it has been verified with the originals).Also, COA application and documents must be submitted to the branch by your representative who is residing in India.So in a case where you are abroad, you will have to send all signed documents to your representative (who is in India) along with original COA application and your representative will submit the COA in the Branch. The branch will take the signature and ID proof of your representative along with documents and will send to the documents to the DPCPU.", "False"

"How can I close the pledge after repayment of my loan?", "After you have repaid your loan, you can request for a closure of the pledge by issuing written instructions in the prescribed standard format. The pledgee, on receiving the repayment, will instruct the DP to confirm the closure of the pledge or instruct the DP to close the pledge unilaterally without awaiting any instruction from the pledgor.", "False"

"How do brokers deliver securities bought by clients?", "After brokers receive credit in their clearing member pool accounts, they will be able to transfer securities to clients accounts for purchases made through them. They have to instruct their DP through DIS to debit their Clearing Member Pool Accounts to that extent stating their clients Demat Account numbers and the DP IDs of the clients participants.", "False"

"How do I close a Demat Account held with Pending Demat, when the company is a defaulter?", "You have to submit the pending Demat cancellation letter (as per format) along with a Demat closure request. After scrutiny of the documents, the DP will initiate cancellation of the pending Demat request and then proceed with the closure.", "False"

"How do I demat shares with Pre-Marital / Maiden names?", "In such cases you need to submit a signed declaration requesting the Company / RTA to dematerialise physical certificates held in your maiden name to your Demat Account held in your married name. You also need to submit a Notarised / Gazette Attested copy of your marriage certificate and the DRF when you give such shares for dematting. The marriage certificate should clearly reflect the change in name due to marriage. Additional Self Attested ID Proof, held in married name, may also accompany the request to strengthen your case. However shares held in a married name may not be dematted to a Demat Account held in a maiden name.", "False"

"How do I transfer Bonds with locked in status from my Demat account?", "Transfer of lock-in shares happens at NSDL instead of by the DP. You have to state the reason for your new signature.", "False"

"Why should I dematerialise my securities?", "You should dematerialize your securities because: SEBI has mandated delivery of stocks only in the dematerialized form; hence if you hold physical certificates you may not be able to sell them immediately. Physical holdings need to be maintained by you and protected from loss, theft, mutilation, fire etc. In case of Demat holdings these worries are taken over by Depository Participant (DP) wherein holdings are maintained electronically by the DP in the Investors Demat Account. A transfer of Demat Holdings is a simple process and can be done by submission of a single page signed delivery instruction slip to the DP. These transfers can also be done from the convenience of your home or office through the Internet. Demat Holdings are automatically received in your Demat Accounts. Convenience of maintenance: Securities held in Demat Accounts are extremely convenient to maintain. For eg. A single request to update your address or dividend bank mandate needs to be submitted for a single Demat Account and the updated details will be applicable to all securities held in this Demat Account. Comparatively, if the securities are held in physical form you will have to submit requests individually for each company/security. The Depository System in India has become very popular and most brokers refuse to deal with physical holdings. More and more instruments are being made available to hold shares in Demat form, the latest being Mutual Fund Statement of Account (SOA). With this you can hold, view and maintain all your investment categories i.e. equity, debt, mutual funds, etc. under a single Demat Account.", "False"

"What is the procedure to change my address in a Corporate Demat Account?", "You can change the address in your Corporate Demat Account by submitting the following: Duly completed Change of address form signed by the authorized signatories as per the mode of operation with the rubber stamp of the company. Latest transaction Statement of your Demat Account. The authorized signatory needs to visit the DP and submit the request personally and carry photo ID proof (original) for verification. The authorized signatory needs to sign once again in front of the DP official.", "False"

"What documentation is required for Demat request submission?", "Original physical certificates are submitted along with an application called a Demat Request Form (DRF). Similarly original MF SOAs are submitted along with a Conversion Request Form (CRF). Both these forms are available on our website under Forms Centre.", "False"

"Should a separate Dematerialisation / Conversion Request Form be filled for each ISIN?", "Yes, a separate Dematerialization Request Form should be filled for each ISIN. However multiple ISINs belonging to the same holders under the same folio and fund house may be submitted for conversion under a single Conversion Request Form.", "False"

"Should a separate DRF / CRF be filled for locked-in and free securities?", "Yes, they should because the quantity of locked-in securities / MF units requested for dematerialisation / conversion will be tagged with the lock-in release date on receipt of relevant the credit in the Investors Demat Account while free securities / MF units requested for dematerialisation / conversion will be reflected as free balance on receipt of relevant the credit and will be transferable and saleable without any such restrictions.", "False"

"What are the advantages of investing in SIP?", "A large part of the success of Mutual Funds is also the advantages they offer in terms of diversification, professional management and liquidity. Power of Compounding: The longer the period of your investment, the more wealth you can accumulate because of the power of compounding. That's why it makes sense to start investing early. Quite simply, the incremental returns that you earn on your principal, plus accrued gains, is compounded. Rupee Cost Averaging: Most investors want to buy stocks when the prices are low and sell them when the prices are high. But timing the market is time consuming and risky. A more successful investment strategy is to adopt a method called Rupee Cost Averaging. By investing in an SIP you end up buying more units when the price is low and less when the price is high. To set up an SIP, walk in to your nearest HDFC Bank branch or invest through an Investment Services Account.", "False"

Is there any exemption?", "Currently, all investors (Individuals or Non-Individuals) who wish to make an investment in a mutual fund scheme, irrespective of the amount, are required to complete the KYC process. This also applies to new Systematic Investment Plan (SIP) registrations on or after 01 January 2011, irrespective of the amount. Please find the list of personnel who are required to be KYC compliant: Joint Holders: Joint holders (including first, second and third if any, are required) have to be individually KYC compliant before they can invest in any Mutual Fund. For e.g., in case of three joint holders, all holders need to be KYC compliant and copies of each holder's KYC Acknowledgement must be attached to the investment application form with any Mutual Fund. Minors: In case of investments for a Minor, the Minors guardian should be KYC compliant and attach the KYC Acknowledgement while investing in the name of the Minor. The Minor, upon attaining majority, should immediately apply for KYC compliance in his/her own capacity and intimate the concerned Mutual Fund(s), in order to be able to transact, furthering his/her own capacity. Power of Attorney (PoA) Holder: Investors who want to invest through a PoA must note that the KYC compliance requirements are mandatory for both the PoA issuer (i.e. Investor) and the Attorney (i.e. the holder of PoA), both of whom should be KYC compliant in their independent capacity, and both must attach their respective KYC acknowledgements while investing. For transmission (in case of death of the unite holder): If the deceased is the sole applicant, the claimant should submit his/her KYC acknowledgement in the request along with the other relevant documents to effect the transmission in his/her favour.", "False"

"Should I visit a PoS personally to obtain KYC Compliance?", "No. If you are not in a position to visit a PoS personally, the KYC Application Form along with the necessary documents (including originals if the copies are not attested) can be sent through the distributor or representative who can arrange to complete the KYC process and obtain the KYC Acknowledgement through any PoS.", "False"

"What are the consequences of KYC cancellation/rejection?", "In the event of any KYC Application Form being found deficient for lack of information/insufficiency of mandatory documentation, further investments will not be permitted.", "False"

"I do not have an account with HDFC Bank, but would like to invest in Mutual Funds. What do I do?", "You can contact any HDFC bank Branch to open a Bank account and once your Savings account is activated. You can fill in the application form for an Investment Services account along with a KYC form and the requisite documents, if you are not KYC Compliant, and send them to your Relationship Manager/Personal Banker or nearest branch. After you receive the welcome letter, you can start investing in Mutual Funds online.", "False"

"Who do I inform about change of name/address/status/signature, etc.?", "You should intimate your change of name/address/status/signature, etc. to any convenient PoS. You need to quote your PAN and submit proof (in case of a new address). You should provide at least 10 days for the change of address to take effect with all the Mutual Funds where you have investments. Please note that you should not write to the Mutual Fund or its Registrar for the change of address (unless as a designated PoS). The specified form can be obtained from the AMFI/Mutual Fund/CDSL website. All details of the holders in the Mutual Fund records will be replaced by the address details available in the CVL record.", "False"

"How is online investing more convenient?", "1. No filling of multiple application forms
2. Only a one time registration agreement to be signed and submitted

"Does the KYC Acknowledgement have an expiry date?", "No. Once the KYC Acknowledgement is obtained and informed to a Mutual Fund, it will be registered against the folio and quoted in all future account statements. The same will exist in perpetuity, unless cancelled by CVL.", "False"

"Why should I invest in SIP's right now?", "The current scenario in the equity market is dominated by negative sentiment, which has led to fundamentals being ignored. This scenario has created volatility in the markets and uncertainty of future outlook. The prudent way to invest in this scenario is to benefit from the volatility and this can be done by investing through SIPs. A monthly SIP helps in averaging out the cost of purchase and benefit from the power of compounding. It also helps in creating wealth over a longer time period. The current investment scenario is still dominated by negative sentiment. This creates volatility in the markets due to confused minds of the investors. Such volatility makes it difficult to capture the market movements and most people end up losing money with the intention of timing the markets. Also investing a lump sum in one shot might lead you to miss out on market opportunities. The tool to beat such a scenario is investing through a Systematic Investment Plan.", "False"

"From what date is it mandatory for me to be KYC Compliant?", "With effect from 01 January 2011, if you want to invest in Mutual Funds you are required to complete the KYC process irrespective of the amount you invest.", "False"

HDFC Life Assured Pension Plan-UL", "False"

"What is so special about this product?", "HDFC Life APP has benefits such as: Capital Guarantee of 101% - 135% - APP is a unit linked plan that provides you the upside of the equity markets. However, to protect you from the market downfall, you have the Assured Vesting Benefit of 101% -135%, depending on the Premium Paying Term and Policy Term combination. This means that your capital is completely protected from any downside Pension Multipliers As a Loyalty benefit, Pension Multipliers would be added to the fund value every alternate year starting from the end of 11th policy year. These additions will be equivalent to 1% of average fund value for the immediate preceding two years, subject to the policy being in force and all premiums paid till date. Early start to boost your corpus With APP you can start your retirement planning as early as 18 years. The earlier you start, you would gain from the power of compounding and be able to build a bigger corpus before your retirement Lower vesting age limits The minimum vesting age of APP is 45 years, this would help you to plan for early retirement", "False"

"Is there an option to change the plan in between? What if you are not able to generate good returns?", "There is no option for changing of plans.", "False"

"What would be the annuity rates at the time of maturity?", "Annuity rates are a function of prevailing market conditions at the time the annuity is bought. Other factors that determine annuity rate are - gender, age, annuity option chosen & premium band. Hence, it would not be possible to commit on the annuity rate at this point.", "False"

"I have other sources of income. Do I still need to plan for retirement?", "Diversification of income source is good. However, as you get older, you might not be able to work the way you can now. The other sources of income might not turn out to be as successful as they are today. Hence, it is prudent to plan for your retirement through a pension plan.", "False"

"I don't want to wait till 60 years for retirement. Is there a way out?", "This plan has a minimum vesting age of 45 years only, which would help to plan for an early retirement. You don't need to wait till 60 years of age. However, once you have fixed your vesting age, it is recommended that you continue for the entire term.", "False"

"I already have a Saving & Investment Plan in place. Do I also need a Pension Plan? What purpose would it serve?", "It's nice to hear that you have already made provisions for your savings. However, the objective of a Pension Plan is very different. Pension Plans are insurance plans that offer you an income/ pension after retirement when you may not have any other adequate source of income. This is not possible with any other plan. Moreover, pension plans can't be liquidated easily, which ensures that your savings stay intact and a kitty is automatically built for your retirement.", "False"

"What is the HDFC Life Assured Pension Plan?", "The Assured Pension Plan is a Unit Linked Pension Plan recently launched by HDFC Life. This plan aims to help you plan for a steady income source for retirement. You can choose from a variety of Premium paying & policy term options as per your comfort and plan your retirement. HDFC Life APP provides you the benefit of equity participation with the comfort of a capital guarantee. To boost your fund value, you also have the pension multipliers that are added to your fund post 11th year.", "False"

"Why should I buy HDFC Life Assured Pension Plan?", "One of the biggest challenges of planning for your retirement is to ensure that you have saved enough money during your working years that will take care of your expenses once you retire. Given the rising cost of living, increased life expectancy and inflation, it is always wise to invest in a Pension Plan. HDFC Life Assured Pension Plan can help you achieve your retirement goals by planning for it well in advance. The charges seem very high, a lot of money would get deducted. This doesn't look like a lucrative option to me. Yes, there are charges as every other ULIP plan, but there is also a Pension Multiplier from the 11th year onwards every alternate year. The longer policy term you go for, the more you gain through Pension Boosters added to the fund value. It is not possible for me to pay for such a long tenure since I have other commitments. HDFC Life APP comes to you with a host of flexibilities. You can choose a limited premium paying term of 8, 10 & 15 years. Also, there is an option to pay a lump sum through a single payment.", "False"

"HDFC Life APP is a ULIP Plan. Why don't I get to choose the funds in this plan?", "HDFC Life APP provides you a guarantee (between 101% -135%) of the premiums paid. This is why the choice of funds are predefined as per the Equity Backing Ratio and is not available for customised allocation by customers.", "False"

"Are there any tax benefits available?", "The premiums paid by you are eligible for tax benefits under Section 80CCC of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Up to 1/3rd of the policy proceeds can be taken as tax-free commuted value, as prescribed under Sec 10 (10A) of the Income Tax Act, 1961.", "False"

"When do I get to choose the annuity option?", "You need to give a default option now, i.e., at the time of purchase of this policy. However, depending on your situation, you always have the option to change/ alter the annuity option at the time of maturity of the pension policy. HDFC Life will get in touch with you 3-6 months before the maturity of the policy and you can revisit your annuity choice options then. In case you don't revert to HDFC Life at that point of time, the default annuity options chosen earlier would be considered and your annuity payments would commence. However, after commencement of annuity you won't be able to make any further alterations.", "False"

"Are top-ups allowed in this plan?", "There isn't any provision of top-up premiums in this plan.", "False"

"What are the steps involved to purchase this policy quickly in case I am travelling and do not have much time?", "Taking you through the procedure and form filling - only KYC documents, signature on proposal form and payment instrument are required. You can also pay online through HDFC Bank NetBanking, Debit card or Credit card. This being a pension plan, you don't need to go through any medicals. After your form is logged in, you would receive a verification call the next day. Once the verification call is closed with an affirmative from your end, your policy would be issued and the Policy Bond would be delivered to your Demat Account. This Demat Account is completely free of cost. Thus it would not take much time. I have a provision for pension from my employer, I don't think there is any separate need for a pension plan. Pension from your employer is great. But with increase in the cost of living and increased life expectancy your employer funded pension might not be enough to pay for your entire expenses post retirement. As a thumb rule your retirement fund should be at least 20 times your last year income before retirement. Hence, it is advisable that you invest in a separate retirement plan so that it supplements your employer-funded pension scheme.", "False"

"I have 30 years to my retirement. Why do I need to plan now?", "This is the best part of your life. You have time on your side. So you can act now and ensure a smooth retirement. Please remember that retirement is inevitable & early planning for retirement is really helpful. The earlier you start investing in your retirement, the bigger would be your retirement kitty, thanks to the power of compounding. You can actually build up a larger sum with a comparatively smaller investment if you start early. So please think about this and act now.", "False"

"What if I am unable to pay the premiums for the entire term? Would you forfeit my money?", "There is no forfeiture clause in this product. In case you have discontinued before 5 years of commencement of the plan, you will have to wait till the completion of the 5th anniversary to utilise the benefits. If you discontinue the plan after 5 years, you get the proceeds right then. Utilisation of proceeds: You can withdraw up to 1/3rd and the rest must be converted into annuity.", "False"

"How would you utilise my funds?", "Your funds will be invested into Equity and Debt instruments as per the Equity Backing Ratio defined by the company. This is to provide you with maximum returns from market upside, as well as protect your capital from any downfall. What if I don't require the fund at the time of vesting. Say I plan to work for some more years. HDFC Life APP provides you various options at vesting. You can choose between either of the two options: Extend the accumulation period within the same policy with same terms & conditions as the original policy, provided you are below 55 years of age. Utilise the entire proceeds to purchase a single premium deferred pension plan from HDFC Life", "False"

"Do I get a life cover from this plan?", "APP being a Pension plan does not have a life cover; however, the death benefit is higher of FV or 105% of the premiums paid till date.", "False"

"Can I exercise the freelook option in this policy?", "In case you are not agreeable to any of our terms or conditions, you have the option of returning the policy to HDFC Life stating the reasons thereof, within 15 days of receipt of the policy bond.", "False"

"Can I get a loan or partial withdrawal on this plan?", "You cannot avail any loan or make partial withdrawal from this plan. HDFC Life Super Savings Plan", "False"

"What are the different types of Savings Plans?", "You may choose between a traditional endowment plan and a unit-linked insurance plan depending on a number of factors including your risk profile, your understanding of different financial instruments and your ability to track your investments regularly. Therefore, those who are well aware of the financial markets, are willing to bear the investment risk and desire a higher return can look at unit linked products and vice versa.", "False"

"What is meant by a With Profits plan?", "With Profits plans are plans where the premiums are invested in the with profit. This fund invests in a variety of assets to earn returns on your policy, which are shared with the policyholders in the form of bonuses which are declared annually. And once declared these bonuses are guaranteed.", "False"

"Should I choose a Unit Linked or a non Unit Linked plan?", "If your financial profile does not allow you to take risks through exposure to equity, bonus-based endowment plans are the most suitable for you. If that is not the case, unit-linked plans are the ideal vehicle for you to plan for your family's future financial needs. Unit-linked plans are associated with transparent charging structure and certain flexibility, besides possessing the potential to deliver a higher amount on maturity. HDFC Life Sampooran Nivesh ", "False"

"What is Extra Life Option in the policy?", "You can opt for Extra life Option under Classic Benefit under the plan. In case of death due to accident during the term of the policy, an additional Sum Assured will be payable to the Nominee in addition to the Death Benefit under the Plan. Please refer to product brochure for further details and/or consult Relationship Manager.", "False"

"What are the Plan options available?", "There are 3 Plan Options available under HDFC Life Sampooran Nivesh as mentioned below: 1. Classic Benefit 2. Classic Plus Benefit 3. Classic Waiver Benefit You can choose any one of the above options on inception based on your requirements. Please refer to the product brochure for more details and/or consult Relationship Manager.", "False"

"What are the exclusions available under the Plan?", "In case of death due to suicide within 12 months from the date of inception of the policy or from the date of the revival of the policy, the nominee or beneficiary of the policyholder shall be entitled to the fund value, as available on the date of death. Any charges recovered subsequent to the date of death shall be paid back to the nominee or beneficiary along with the death benefit. "Why do I need a Childrens Plan?","As a parent, your priority is your child's future and being able to meet their dreams and aspirations. Providing a good education, establishing a professional career or even a modest wedding is becoming an expensive proposition with each passing year. Costs are increasing fast. Just imagine how much you will need when your young children take these important steps in life in the future. With our Childrens Plans, you can start building regular savings today to help you secure your child's immediate and future needs even when you are not around.", "False"

"Should I buy a plan in my child's name or in my own name?", "When purchasing a Life Insurance plan, it is important to remember that its main purpose is to replace an income that is lost in case of the unfortunate demise of the chief bread winner of the family (Life Assured). A child rarely has an income and therefore has no reason to be insured. If the Insurance Plan is taken in name of the child, the plan gets derailed in case of the unfortunate demise of the parent. Thus, the very objective of any Child's Plan is undermined if the plan is acquired in the child's name. Therefore, as far as possible, make sure that you, as a parent, are the Life Assured and the nominee or the beneficiary is your child.", "False"

"What are the factors to consider while buying a Child's Plan?", "Consider the inflated costs of a normal educational course or any other requirements that your child might have in the future. This should be your targeted savings amount, which you would want to receive when the policy matures. Ideally, the term you should choose for the plan is when your child is in a position to require the money. Thereafter, you need to sit with your Relationship Manager to work out the amount to be invested and the level of protection required.", "False"

"How do I choose from options available under this plan?", "At policy inception, based on your child's future needs you can choose one of the three available Maturity Benefit Options. These options are: a) Aspiration: if you choose this option, you will receive a lump sum payout at the end of your policy term. You can use this money to fund your child's marriage or any other large expense. b) Academia: if you choose this option, you will receive guaranteed payouts during the last 5 policy years. The first guaranteed payout shall be higher than subsequent guaranteed payouts. You can use these payouts to fund your child's college education in future. c) Career: if you choose this option, you will receive guaranteed payouts during the last 5 policy years. The last guaranteed payout shall be higher than previous guaranteed payouts. You can use these payouts to fund your child's schooling or college expenses in future. Also at policy inception, based on the level of protection you need for your child's financial planning, you can choose one of the two Death benefit options. "What is a difference between NRE & NRO Savings Account?","Please note the difference between NRE and NRO Savings account:A . Non-Resident External (NRE) accountA Non-Resident External Account is a savings account maintained for your foreign income earned outside India to earn tax-free interest and fully repatriability of funds (Principal & Interest). This is the most convenient way to use your foreign earnings in India. Domestic credits are not allowed in these accounts. Only foreign currency credits are allowed in the NRE savings account.B . Non-Resident Ordinary (NRO) accountA Non-Resident Ordinary Account is a savings account maintained to manage your income earned in India such as rent, dividends, pension etc. Redesignate your Resident Account to NRO status upon change of your residential status. RBI allows repatriation only up to ONE Million USD per financial year (post payment of applicable taxes) for bonafide purposes (e.g. education, medical expenses etc.) Interest earned on the NRO account is liable to 30% tax plus applicable surcharge plus education cess which is deducted at source. Process for closure of NRE/NRO Fixed Deposit

You can close your Fixed Deposit through any of the modes below:

- Through Netbanking (Available only for Deposits booked through Netbanking under Single Owner - SOW)
- Through Branch

A. Through Netbanking: You can liquidate your Fixed Deposit online if it is booked online and is held under Single Owner SOW relationship. Following are the steps for closure of your Fixed Deposit online:

- Login to your Netbanking account with your customer ID & Password
- Select ""Liquidate Fixed Deposit "" option under the Fixed Deposit menu from the Menu bar located on the left hand side of the web page
- Select the Fixed Deposit account number from the Drop-down lists
- Once complete, click on ""Continue"" and ""Confirm"" the details entered

A new web page, confirming the Liquidating Fixed Deposit will be displayed.

B. Through Branch: You can submit the Fixed Deposit Advice or fill the Fixed Deposit Premature Closure Form available at branch duly signed by all the account holders irrespective of the mode of operation. The application for closure may be submitted at either of the below addresses:

- At any of our overseas offices. Click on ""Find your nearest...."" on http://www.hdfcbank.com/nri_banking/nri_service_desk/nri_service_desk.htm
- At any of our Branches in India

Note: If your Fixed Deposit is en-cashed before the maturity date (premature withdrawal), then the interest rate applicable will be lower of:

- The interest rate of the original tenure for which the FD has been booked OR
- The interest rate applicable for the tenure for which the FD has been in force with the bank.

For NRE Fixed Deposits, minimum stipulated period is 1 year to earn any interest. Hence if FD is broken before 1 year, no interest is paid. For NRO Fixed Deposits, minimum stipulated period is 7 days to earn any interest. Hence if FD is broken before 7 days, no interest is paid. We do not levy any Penal Interest on any premature withdrawal of NRE Fixed Deposit. There is a 1% Penal Interest on Premature withdrawal of NRO Fixed Deposit. If your deposit is booked under Monthly Interest Payout mode, the excess interest paid will be deducted from Principal in case of Premature closure of Fixed Deposit. freely repatriable through any of the below modes:

A. Through Netbanking (Available for accounts held by Single Holder): Repatriation of funds from "NRE account" and 'Repatriation of FCNR Deposit is now possible through Netbanking by the following the below mentioned procedure:-

Login to your Netbanking account with your customer ID & Password

Select the 'Third Party Fund Transfers' Tab

Add your overseas account number (in your own name) under the 'Add a Beneficiary' section

Select 'Repatriation from NRE Account/FCNR Deposit'. The beneficiary name will get auto-populated in the 'Beneficiary Name' field as it has to be the same as the account holder.

Fill in the other details like beneficiary bank, beneficiary country, beneficiary account number, SWIFT code, etc., and follow the steps for adding beneficiary.

Post addition of beneficiary, you need to select the 'Third Party Fund Transfers' and select the transaction type and proceed with the repatriation.

To add a beneficiary to transfer funds to other bank accounts / credit cards, please follow the below steps:

Login to your Netbanking account with your customer ID & Password

Click on the option for Third Party Transfer facility (top of the web page)

Select the appropriate option viz. Transfer within the bank / Transfer to another bank / Credit Card Payment (Using NEFT) / Repatriation from NRE Account or FCNR Deposit

Enter the beneficiary details (i.e. the account number etc. of the third party) before you transfer funds. The Beneficiary Details will be used to identify the account holder, and thus must include the name as well. You also have the option of entering the e-mail id of the beneficiary. You can register a maximum of 50 beneficiaries each for NEFT/RTGS/TPT.

After entering each detail, click on ADD button. The beneficiary will be added after 12 hours, after which you can transfer funds to that account.

Kindly note, repatriation to third party is not allowed under this facility through Net Banking. The repatriation request will be processed within 2 international working days (excluding Sat/Sun/ Indian Public Holidays/International Currency Holidays). The amount will be debited at the time of processing the request received at our end and not at the time you raise the request.
